Discussion Questions - Week 1

1. Why did you choose, as an adult, to be a Christian Catholic? What is your agenda?
2. Who invited you back to church or inspired your faith as an adult? Thinking about that person, what unique platform did that person occupy in your life that enabled him or her to influence you?
3. How would your life be different if you had never heard anything about Jesus?
4. How do you feel about the idea that Christians are “fishers of men?” Have you ever evangelized to anyone? How did it go?
5. Kelly mentioned that some of your greatest failures, weaknesses, or tragedies can be your unfair advantage to evangelizing to someone else. Talk about how you can use your unique platform to inspire someone else’s faith.
6. Make a list of potential people in your sphere of influence that might need a church home. As you pray for them, what is one strategic step that you could take that might eventually lead to an invitation to Nativity?

Practice

This week write a letter to the person who most inspired your faith as an adult thanking them for having the courage and love to tell you about God.

Discussion Questions - Week 2

1. Name one person you are investing and inviting in and write that name down.
2. What difference can Jesus make in the life of the person you want to get to Church? What ways do think they need Jesus for healing?
3. Why does your relationship with Jesus matter? Where have you seen it make a difference in your life?
4. Name 2 obstacles you face when it comes to investing and inviting. How can you overcome them?
5. How can you approach going to Mass differently in light of the fact that we team together to create an irresistible environment for outsiders?

Practice

Commit to 1 action will you take this week to invest and invite in the one person you have identified.

Discussion Questions - Week 3

1. Have you been investing in one person? How have you invested? Have you had any opportunities to invite them to Church?
2. How can sharing our faith help us to grow in boldness?
3. How does bringing other people to Jesus bring significance to our lives?
4. What are your thoughts and feelings on being apart of what our Almighty God is doing?
5. What threats concern you when it comes inviting others to come to know Jesus? How does the prayer of the apostles help you to overcome those threats?

Practice

Pray for courage to regularly invest and invite others into a relationship with Jesus.
