
Doubts, Deconstruction & Discipleship

Discussion Questions

1. What are the biggest doubts or issues people your age take up with the church, God, or religion?
 - What doubts have you had about church, God, or religion?
2. Where do those doubts come from? What caused you to have them?
3. How can doubt be a good thing?
 - What makes the difference in how doubt either strengthens your faith or chips away at it?
4. When have you heard the term “deconstruction” before? How does it apply to your faith?
 - In what ways was Jesus a deconstructionist?
 - Can you think of particular stories or interactions where he helped deconstruct and reconstruct someone’s understanding?
5. What does it mean to you to deconstruct your faith? How do you start to reconstruct it?
6. Does deconstruction mean you have to abandon your faith? Can you have doubts and still love and follow Jesus?