

CONVERSATION GUIDE

FULL CIRCLE WEEK TWO

SCRIPTURE ISAIAH 45: 1-6

¹ Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp, Subduing nations before him, stripping kings of their strength, Opening doors before him, leaving the gates unbarred: ² I will go before you and level the mountains; Bronze doors I will shatter, iron bars I will snap. ³ I will give you treasures of darkness, riches hidden away, That you may know I am the LORD, the God of Israel, who calls you by name. ⁴ For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel my chosen one, I have called you by name, giving you a title, though you do not know me. ⁵ I am the LORD, there is no other, there is no God besides me. It is I who arm you, though you do not know me, ⁶ so that all may know, from the rising of the sun to its setting, that there is none besides me. I am the LORD, there is no other.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where has God opened doors for you? In what ways have you seen God's hand in your victories? Share the circumstances of that event.
2. How can we help people see God's goodness and hand in their lives when times are good? Why is that challenging to do?
3. St. Augustine said, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you." When was a time where you found worldly success too small to fill your heart and felt restless?
4. Where have you seen faith and trust in God work for you? How has it made your life better?
5. Who is someone you know who is enjoying worldly success to connect with Christ and his church? What can you do to help them see their need for God?

Deeper Dive
